

The IFLRY Human Rights Programme is looking for new members! Human rights unites member organisations all across the world, but unfortunately we see the human rights of (young) activists being denied or violated on a daily basis. As IFLRY, we draw attention to this and influence decision-makers to affect change.

What does this mean?

- Advocacy and lobbying in order to put human rights issues on the political agenda
- Supporting Member Organizations in developing tools to integrate human rights in their day-to-day policies and activities
- Raising awareness on human rights violations worldwide

In order to apply for the programme, you must be:

- Passionate about human rights activism
- Committed to put time and effort into the programme in order to carry out concrete actions
- A member of an IFLRY member organization or an organization wishing to join IFLRY

To apply please submit a motivation letter (max 1 page) and a copy of your CV to IFLRY Human Rights Programme Manager Daphnie Ploegstra (daphne.ploegstra@iflry.org) and IFLRY President Pauline Kastermans (pauline.kastermans@iflry.org). Please state a contact person in your organization in your application. Feel free to contact Daphnie or Pauline for any further questions.
