CALL for Members of the Belarus and Ukraine Programme Team

IFLRY is seeking members for the Belarus and Ukraine Programme Team. This year's call for new members of the IFLRY Belarus and Ukraine Programme Team is out now. The IFLRY Programme Manager and the Team Members will meaningfully contribute to the struggle for a free, prosperous and democratic Belarus and Ukraine. This contribution will involve communicating and liaising with civil society groups, international organizations as well as donors and implementers engaged in the democratization process.

The Belarus and Ukraine Team will furthermore organize trainings and solidarity projects for Belarusian and Ukrainian partners and fellow youth activists in the countries. Last but not least the IFLRY Belarus and Ukraine Programme is striving for an intensive improvement of public awareness by campaigning for democratization on- and offline.

If you are passionate about democratization projects and human-rights advocacy consider applying for the IFLRY Belarus and Ukraine Programme Team! For additional information on the work of the Belarus and Ukraine Programme please contact the current Programme Manager Daniel George (daniel.george@iflry.org).

You have to be active in an IFLRY Member Organization to respond to this call! Please be aware that we might contact the International Officer or other responsible board members of your organization for reference. Applications from residents of the Republic of Belarus can unfortunately still not be accepted due to security issues. In case you don't fulfil these prerequisites but still want to get involved please contact the Programme Manager.

Please send your applications including a CV and a short motivation to the Programme Manager (daniel.george@iflry.org). The deadline is 15th of August 2016.
