Dear Ms. Tone Bjørndal,

This Saturday, Robert Landheer was elected Treasurer. As a result, there is a vacancy for the position of auditor. The Jonge Democraten from the Netherlands, Member Organisation of the International Federation of Liberal Youth, would like to nominate Marit van der Pol (member of JOVD) for that position. The Jonge Democraten believe Marit will prove to be an excellent auditor.

Marit has vast experience in international youth politics. She has been active for both IFRLY and LYMEC. Over the years she has shown to be motivated, enthusiastic and capable of fulfilling several tasks and duties within both organizations. Currently, she is a member of the committee of arbitration of LYMEC. Besides experience in youth politics, Marit also is a private teacher. Being a teacher in Economics, Business and Maths, she knows a lot about finance and (business) administration. Therefore, she possesses the knowledge and skills that are paramount for being an outstanding auditor.

We believe that Marit is best suited for the position of auditor at IFLRY. She is very motivated to get started and we hope the Extraordinary General Assembly will give her the opportunity to do so.

Should you have any questions about our nomination of Marit van der Pol for the position of Auditor, please do not hesitate to reach out to Laura Neijenhuis, international contact person of the Jonge Democraten (Telephone: +31634203163, email: internationaal@jd.nl), also on site in Amman.

Thank you for your cooperation,

With kind regards,

Wouter van Erkel
